"THE ADVENTURES OF ROBINSON CRUSOE"

Episode Six

"Friday's Faith"

BROKEN-HEARTED at losing the chance to be taken back to England Crusoe constructs a crude dugout with which to explore the island. He sails his craft down the river near his stockade and meets the white girl. He thanks her for having saved his life, speaking Spanish which he has picked up at sea.

So overcome is he with joy at meeting a white person, he prolongs the conversation as long as possible. Noting the girl's absence from the encampment Torquada sets out to find her. Seeing her with Crusoe he becomes madly jealous and attacks Crusoe with a knife. Crusoe disarms him and they grapple. Crusoe loses his footing and is hurled into a net of fibre-like weeds used by the settlers to trap game.
